

All students are required to have equipment necessary for clinical activities. Students may purchase this equipment from Research Student Nurse Association. A list of required equipment is sent to students prior to beginning their sophomore level nursing courses.