

Criteria for Nomination and Selection for the RNAA Outstanding Alumnus Award

Purpose: This award, established in 1990, is given in recognition of outstanding contributions to the nursing profession and/or service to the community.

Scholarships are given to two undergraduate nursing students in honor of the awardees. The award and scholarships are presented at the RNAA Homecoming Weekend Awards Luncheon.

1. No more than three awardees selected each year.
2. Awards are presented annually at Homecoming Weekend.
3. Awardees must be graduates of the Research School of Nursing or Research College of Nursing.
4. Service to the community may or may not be related to nursing or health care.
